i have found occasion in several instances to differ with some of the well known shakespearean scholars but it must always be remembered that i speak from the viewpoint of the actor for whom and for whom alone the plays were written i have not entered the literary dissecting room nor invaded the realm of psychology the line of demarcation between humor and imbecility folly and insanity i leave to the professional alienist i have taken the characters as they appear in the plays and as i conceive the author intended them with due reference to their relation to the other characters preface
